

Common Name: Frilled Lizard
Scientific Name: chlamydosaurus kin Geographic Range: Northern Australia Description: total body measures 20 cm, four legs, big mouth, long tail, dark browns Habitat: moist tropical and warm temperature
Diet: insects, ants spiders,
Special Needs: Interesting Facts: Not harmful or poisonous. displays its frill to scare enemies. can change colors.
the female lays 12 eggs
Typed by: Nalleli Ramos Rodrigues

Brian
POSSUM

Daniel

Common Name: Wallaby
Scientific Name: Onychogalea Fraemate
Geographic Range: All over Australia
Description: They look and act like a kangaroo but they are smaller. from their head to their tail is 6 meters. they have a body length of 1 meters. they have a white line down its whole body
Habitat: Rocky parts of Australia, eucalyptus forest, shrub land, and open grassy lands Diet: grass and small plants
Special Needs: Wallaby do not drink much water Interesting Facts:

Typed by: Mayelin Tiburcio Calderon

no me